

INTRODUCING YOUR JUDGE

CV

MR PAUL QUICK HAVANCE

I've been involved in Boston terriers since 2010 when we bought our first Boston pixie.

We then went on to buy another Boston in 2010 called monet. He was shown at championship level and was qualified for crufts at his first show. That was it I was hooked, since then, I have had my head in books, studying and researching the breed and love to study the pedigrees behind all of our Dogs. We imported two great dogs from Slovakia, one of which went on to win the European winner title in Dortmund 2014 and became our foundation bitch. My wife and I were then introduced to Bert Easdon where we added Mia to our family - CH Yakee let it be me for Havance JW. Mia had a very successful show career gaining her championship title and going on to be awarded many cc's.

Since then we have bred 6 bostons that have obtained their studbook numbers. We also bred Havance Return to sender (Ralph) who we co owned with friends in America. We took Ralph over to the National Specialty in Iowa in 2019 where he won Reserve winners dog. The first U.K. bred dog to win such an accolade. Ralph then went on to gain his Grand Champion title and also Rom which is awarded to dogs that have produced over 5 American champions.

I started my judging career in 2017 and have completed all of the seminars and assessments required. I took part in the American judges Education Programme with Michael & Beverly Staley and Carl Gomes. I am so very honoured and thankful to be invited to judge The Boston Terrier club open show and am excited to see some lovely dogs
