INTRODUCING YOUR JUDGE

MRS LESLEY DEARN
(ROXXILU)

I first experienced the world of dog showing in the 1980's, where I began showing my Staffordshire Bull Terrier, Katie. She introduced me into the world of showing and taught me a great deal about the sport. After we lost Katie, I was heartbroken and took a break from owning a dog for a few years. In around 2005 we decided to look for a family dog. The intention was to find a dog that would be a companion, showing was never really the plan. I went to Crufts in 2005 with my daughter and we fell in love with the Boston Terrier. We loved their larger than life personality and smart appearance. In 2007 Roxxi (Esangee Rising Star) entered our lives. She was such a showgirl and taught us so much about the breed. She won the RCC at her first ever Crufts in 2009, a day we will remember forever. Over the years we have owned two champions, Ch Keznel A Little Drop Of Honey at Roxxilu and Ch Roxxuli Here Comes Trouble JW, who are granddaughters and great granddaughters of Roxxi. We also bred Roxxilu American Gentleman who has sired 5 champions. I am looking forward to judging a breed that I am so passionate about.
